Electronic transfers between clubs for players are handled electronically in NFF's electronic transfer system FIKS. All communication between the clubs are done electronically in FIKS. This communication is done by the responsible for transfers in each club which has the appropriate authorisations in FIKS.

Each club has defined responsible persons for transfers who have the authorisation to handle requests about transfers in FIKS.

This consent form will ensure that the player, and the guardian in the case where the player is under 18, signs and hereby accept that the player is changing club.

The consent form will be uploaded to FIKS by the new club.

By signing this consent form I/We understand and agree that all necessary documents in relation to the transfer will be filed electronically in FIKS.

For further information about the electronic transfers and case documents, see www.fotball.no/overganger
